

I fear that many problems will arise on other issues if restrictions are allowed to be imposed upon Sattellite Radio. The service is not free, it is paid for by subscribers. This product is obviously a better product to some than others. It would be against our rights to free speach to disallow American Citizens the right to chose who they listen to.
Please do not infringe on my rights.